

Support for tackling bullying

Anti-bullying Alliance membership and services

The Anti-bullying Alliance (ABA) was founded in 2002 by NCB and NSPCC. It is a national coalition of members from the voluntary, statutory and private sectors with a wealth of expertise and experience in tackling bullying.

This guide gives you an introduction to our range of membership offers, resources and services. For more detailed information visit our website at www.anti-bullyingalliance.org.uk

ABA membership

If you or your organisation is committed to tackling bullying then join us as a Core or Associate member and receive:

- regular email updates
- access to advice from the ABA team
- opportunities to network and share best practice
- opportunities to market your services.

Along with a range of other benefits for just £50 per year for Associate and £80 for Core members.

Find out more about becoming a member: www.anti-bullyingalliance.org.uk/membership

ABA School and College Network

Open to all schools and colleges in England offering:

- termly e-bulletins full of practical advice
- access to advice from the ABA team
- an anti-bullying week pack sent directly to your school or college each year
- posters to display in your school or college.

Along with a range of other benefits for £95 per year.

Find out more about subscribing: www.anti-bullyingalliance.org.uk/scn

Anti-bullying Alliance Online

ABA website

Information and regular updates on all aspects of anti-bullying policy and practice with full details of ABA member organisations and the services they have to offer.

www.anti-bullyingalliance.org.uk

ABA Local Authority toolkit

Is designed to support local authorities to embed anti-bullying work in schools and the wider community and is illustrated throughout with case studies of local best practice.

www.abatoolkit.org.uk

ABA Tools for Schools website

A bank of resources for schools and colleges to address bullying behaviour and related issues. Other practitioners working with children and young people outside of school settings will also find helpful information.

www.abatoolsforschools.org.uk

Free resources for practitioners

ABA Tackling bullying in schools: a guide for governors (2011)

Specific advice on the crucial role of school governors, written in consultation with experienced governors.

ABA Tackling bullying in schools: a mapping of approaches (2008)

A guide for practitioners on a range of approaches for tackling bullying.

ABA pupil and parent surveys (updated 2010)

Questionnaires for schools to survey children and young people and parents and carers about bullying.

Find our free resources at www.abatoolsforschools.org.uk

Tailored training and events

Training for school governors

ABA offers bespoke training on all aspects of anti-bullying work delivered on a one-day, half-day or twilight session basis.

Bespoke support for training, seminars and conferences

Benefit from the extensive knowledge and experience of ABA and our members developed through our work in anti-bullying policy and practice.

For more details contact aba@ncb.org.uk

www.anti-bullyingalliance.org.uk
aba@ncb.org.uk

